Holy Qur'an:

القرآن:

“And let not those, who are niggardly with respect to what Allah has given them of His bounty, think that it is good for them; nay, it is evil for them. That with respect to which they were niggardly shall be put as a collar round their necks on the Day of Resurrection. And to Allah belongs the heritage of the heavens and the earth, and Allah is well aware of what you do” [Ch. 3: V. 181]

Hadith:

حديث:

Narrated Abu Huraira (ra): Allah's Apostle (saw) said, "Whoever is made wealthy by Allah and does not pay the Zakat of his wealth, then on the Day of Resurrection his wealth will be made like a baldheaded poisonous male snake with two black spots over the eyes. The snake will encircle his neck and bite his cheeks and say, 'I am your wealth, I am your treasure.' " Then the Prophet recited the holy verses:- “And let not those... what you do (Aal-e-Imran 3:181)”

The Promised Messiah (as):

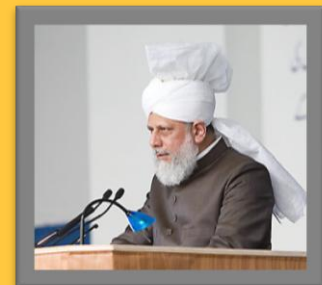

ملفوظات:

The revival of Islam requires a sacrifice from us. What is that sacrifice? It is to die striving in this path, upon which the life of Islam, the life of Muslims, and the manifestation of Allah depends. This, in other words, is Islam. It is the revival of this Islam which Allah today desires. To attain this objective, it was necessary that He should Himself establish a great and effective system; and this is what the Wise and Mighty has done by sending me into this world for reform of mankind. He has divided this task of supporting the truth and the propagation of Islam into several branches. [Fath-e-Islam, Ruhani Khaza'in, volume 3, p. 10-12.]

Friday Sermon

خطبة الجمعة:

When one receives the blessings of Allah as a result of his sacrifices, his faith strengthens. They spend not to show their wealth or as a favour to someone but rather to seek the pleasure of Allah, to support the weak, the Community and to strengthen faith. Both rich and poor come forward. Usually the poor seek the pleasure of Allah more than the rich. Usually there are more poor among the believers. We see the example of strengthening the individuals after the migration to Medina. Companions set unparalleled example. Whenever there was an appeal, they sacrificed the best of their possessions. [January 7th, 2011 – Full Summary may be found on Alislam.org]
