Earth's Core Is Melting and Freezing

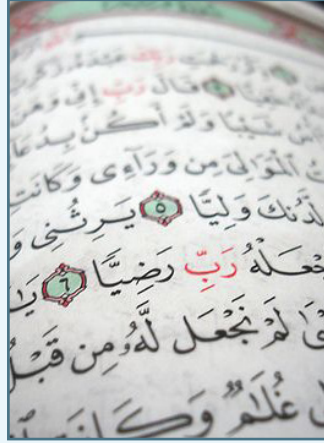

The inner core of Earth is simultaneously melting and freezing due to circulation of heat in the overlying rocky mantle, according to new research from the University of Leeds, UC San Diego and the Indian Institute of Technology.

The findings, published May 19 Nature, could help us understand how the inner core formed and how the outer core acts as a 'geodynamo', which generates the planet's magnetic field.

"The origins of Earth's magnetic field remain a mystery to scientists," said study co-author Dr Jon Mound from the University of Leeds. "We can't go and collect samples from the centre of Earth, so we have to rely on

The Holy Qur'an : Chapter 24: Al-Nur

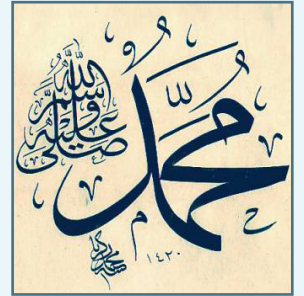

وَلَا يَأْتَلِ أُولُو الْفَضْلِ مِنْكُمْ وَالسَّعَةِ
أَنْ يُؤْتُوا أُولِي الْقُرْبَى وَالْمَسْكِينِ
وَالْمُهَاجِرِينَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَلْيَعْفُوا
وَلْيَصْفَحُوا أَلَا تُحِبُّونَ أَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ
لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٢٣﴾

And let not those who possess wealth and plenty among you swear not to give aught to the kindred and to the needy and to those who have left their homes in the cause of Allah. Let them forgive and pass over the offence. Do you not desire that Allah should forgive you? And Allah is Most Forgiving, Merciful. [24:23]

Hadith

Abu Hurairah (ra) narrates that a person inquired of the Holy Prophet ﷺ:

"O Messenger of Allah, which act of charity has the greatest rewards?" The Messenger of Allah answered. "That you give charity when you are in good health, when you yourself stand in need, and when you are afraid of poverty and desire to become wealthy – if, even then, you are not neglectful. Not that you tarry until your life is ebbing out, and then you say this much for him and that much for him." (Mishkat)

Writings of the Promised Messiah (as)

"If it was in my power, I would knock on the door of every house just like a beggar, in order to spread the true word of God so that the people may be saved from disbelief and atheistic tendencies, which is prevalent all over the world. If God were to teach me English, then I would go round and propagate His message even if it means that I may have to sacrifice my life in the process."

Friday Sermon

Impact of charity on the economy and society at large

Published on June 8th, 2007 - Taken from alislam.org

In the previous sermon, Hudhur spoke about the rights towards others, an extremely important topic as it promotes peace and harmony in the society. Today's sermon expounded on the same topic, outlining the impact of fulfilling these rights on the economy of a country and on society at large.

Hudhur said that in every society, the rich and the poor co-exist, and the needy and those who provide for them live side-by-side. But there are people who due to their greediness and self-indulgence abstain from spending their wealth in the way of religion, nor do they fulfill the needs of the poor, to the point that they become entirely oblivious to the rights of others. They do not wish to spend an iota of their wealth that is given to them by God Almighty. This kind of an attitude widens the gap between people and severs ties between them. It also promotes feelings of jealousy and rancor among the poor for their wealthier relatives. A believer should restrain from such greed. Thankfully, there are no such people or very few of them in the Jamaat who keep an eye on other's wealth. In fact, it has come to notice that the poor and less resourceful people are often those who make larger financial sacrifices keeping in perspective their economic standards.

The more affluent people should always be mindful of the needs of their brothers, and feelings of anger and dispute should never prevent them from extending their hand in help to the poor. An Ahmadi should not indulge in fulfilling his or her own desires alone, but should respect the desires and needs of his brothers, sisters, poor, and others. Hudhur related the incident from the life of Hazrat Muhammad (saw). He was going through a very difficult time of trial when Hazrat Aisha (ra) was accused of a certain wrongdoing. At that time, there were certain people, who were otherwise righteous but for some reason accused Hazrat Aisha (ra) wrongfully, whom Hazrat Abu Bakr (ra) was helping financially. After Hazrat Aisha (ra)'s pardon from Allah Almighty, Hazrat Abu Bakr (ra) swore that he would never help these people again. On that occasion, Allah revealed the following verse:

“And let not those who possess wealth and plenty among you swear not to give aught to the kindred and to the needy and to those who have left their homes in the cause of Allah. Let them forgive and forbear. Do you not desire that Allah should forgive you? And Allah is Most Forgiving, Merciful” (24:23)
