Hadith

Saying of the Holy Prophet^{saw}

Narrated Haritha bin Wahb:

I heard Allah's Apostle saying, "Give in charity because there will come a time on the people when a person will go out with his alms from place to place but will not find anybody to accept it."

Bukhari 9:88:236

Writings of the Promised Messiah^{as}

Islam today is a light hidden in a box. Or, it is a sweet-water spring covered by leaves and twigs and straw. The fair face of Islam cannot be seen. Its beauty cannot be viewed. It is the duty of every Muslim to do their utmost to show the world how lovely Islam is.

Friday Sermons of Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih^{atba}

During his Friday Sermon, Huzur^{atba} said:

The blessed model of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) is there for us to follow for the rest of time. Hadhrat 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) narrates: 'Whenever there was a strong wind, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) used to say: 'O Allah! I ask You for what is good in it, and the good which it contains, and the good of that which it was sent for. I seek refuge with You from what is evil in it, what evil it contains, and the evil of that what it was sent for; and when there was a thunder and lightning in the sky, his colour underwent a change, and he went out and in, backwards and forwards; and when the rain came, he felt relieved, and I noticed sign of relief on his face'. Hadhrat 'Aishah asked him about this and he answered: 'It may be that these clouds are like those that had overcast the people of Ad. When they saw a cloud formation coming to their valley they said: 'It is a cloud which would give us rain'. However, the cloud brought them a calamity.
