Holy Qur'an:

We will surely try you with somewhat of fear and hunger, and loss of wealth and lives and fruits, then give glad tidings to the steadfast (2.156)

Sayings of the Holy Prophet (saw):

Suhaib ibn Sinan relates that the Holy Prophet (saw) said: Wondrous is the case of a believer; there is good for him in everything, and it is so for him alone. If he experiences something agreeable, he is grateful to God and that is good for him; and if he experiences adversity, he is steadfast and that is good for him (Muslim).

Writings of the Promised Messiah (as):

'It will be a trial, then be steadfast as were steadfast those of high resolve. Allah will frustrate the plan of the disbelievers. Hearken! it is a trial from Allah so that He may love thee with a great love, love from Allah, the Mighty, the Lord of Honour; a bounty that will not be cut off...'

Synopsis of Friday sermon Delivered by Hadhrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad ^{atba}, Supreme Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, November 26th, 2010

Hazoor (atba) Recited v. 154 of Surah Al Baqra, in which he elaborated on the Supreme virtue of steadfastness with reference to the practice of the Promised Messiah (A.S.) in which he said that Only those people can put this in practice who have complete faith and trust in God, he gave example of Sheikh Yaqub Ali Irfani sahib (R.A.), Maulwi Abdul Kareem sahib (R.A.), Hadhrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad (R.A.). Some people raised objections

" Only those people can put this (virtue of steadfastness) in practice who have complete faith and trust in God." (Promised Messiah (as)) during the construction of Minaratul Masih, Hadhrat Mirza Bashir Ahmad sahib also relates that some close relatives of the Promised Messiah (A.S.) would utter verbal abuse all night long At dawn the Promised Messiah (A.S.) could ask that the person be given something to eat as he had spent the night uttering abuse and would have a dry throat, Some irreligious and worldly cousins of the Promised Messiah (A.S.) were extremely opposed to him Once they closed off a path that led to the mosque which created extreme inconvenience to those who wished to meet the Promised Messiah (A.S.), With God's grace his Community has now reached 198 countries of the world and is gaining strength by the day.
