I herein discharge my duty unto you, by making it plain that sin is a poison. Do not take it! Disobedience to God is a dirty death which you should avoid!”

In the collection and collation of legalistic material he holds a high place. His collections of Ahadith are known as “SUNAN ABU DAWUD”. But scholars are divided on the question of assigning priority of merit of Jami'Tirmidhi and Sunan Abu Dawud.

Summary of the Friday Sermon

The Nur (Light) of the Holy Prophet (saw)

Delivered by Hadhrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad (atba) on January 22nd 2010

Huzur (atba) gave a discourse on the nur of the Holy Prophet (saw) in his Sermon. Huzur (atba) began elucidating the subject by reading extracts from the august writings of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace). The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) said that the wisdom and supremely excellent morals of this Prophet of God were such that they illuminated even before God's revelation descended upon him (advent of prophet hood). Explaining the Quranic term '...light upon light...' (24:36), he wrote that the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) was already an amalgamation of light, on top of which the light of God's revelation descended and he thus became a compilation of light. The Holy Qur'an calls him 'Seerajum Muneera' (lamp that gives bright light) (33:47) and the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) explains that the exquisite wisdom in calling him thus is that one lamp can alight hundreds of thousands of lamps.

In following the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) hundreds of thousands of people will attain a status and a general grace rather than an exclusive grace will be granted. The Holy Prophet (saw) said the one who goes to the mosque during hours of darkness is given the glad-tiding of perfect light on the Day of Judgement. Another prayer of the Holy Prophet (saw) is: 'O Allah, I seek that special mercy of Yours through which You may guide my heart and settle my matters and make good my troubled matters. Unite me with those who have been apart from me and exalt those who are connected to me. Through Your mercy purify my deed and reveal guidance to me. May those who I love are united with me. Indeed, a special mercy that will protect me from every evil. O' Allah bestow me an everlasting belief and certainty after which disbelief cannot be.'
