Love for All Hatred for None

June 2011

Issue 4

Holy Qur'an

“Allah had promised to those among you who believe and do good works that He will surely make them Successors in the earth, as He made Successors from among those who were before them; and that He will surely establish for them their religion which He has chosen for them; and that He will surely give them in exchange security and peace after their fear: They will worship Me, and they will not associate anything with Me. Then who so is ungrateful after that, they will be the rebellious.”[24:56]

Hadith

"Verily, God will appoint for this Ummah in the beginning of every century, those who will restore for it its faith."

[Abu Da'ood, Kitabul Fitn]

Malfoozat

For it is essential for you to witness the second Manifestation also, and its Coming is better for you because it is everlasting the continuity of which will not end till the Day of Judgement.

Extract of Friday Sermon

Hudhur said that in his sermon of 27 May he had spoken about Ahmadiyya Khilafat in light of the Holy Qur'an, the prophecy of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) and the pronouncements of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace). He had also wanted to say something with reference to coming of Mujaddid (Reformer/Revivalist) but the subject required some expounding, therefore Hudhur did not mention it then, but would speak on it today.

A while ago a child in Waqfe Nau class questioned Hudhur if Mujaddids will come in future. Hudhur feels this kind of question arises when it is discussed in families because a child could not come up with a question like this or some, who wish to create uneasiness among children and the youth pose such questions. Hudhur explained that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) said that a Mujaddid will come at the turn of each century. Questions relating to this have arisen in the Jama'at at different times, not by sincere members but by those who wish to create discord. Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih II (may Allah be pleased with him) expounded this matter on various occasions. In the era of Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih III (may Allah have mercy on him) this issue was raised quite forcefully and he gave comprehensive discourse in response. Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih IV (may Allah have mercy on him) was also questioned about this. It is matter that is raised in minds time and again and the hypocritical have tried to create restlessness as to what is the difference between Mujaddidiat (the office/agency of a Mujaddid) and Khilafat. Craftily, the debate is initiated from an academic viewpoint but it is later discovered that the intention is quite different. This was especially found to be the case in the era of the third Ahmadiyya Khilafat. ('Mujaddid of the Last Millennium' Published on Jun 10 2011 – see resources for link to full article)

The Life of Prophet: Ibraheem (as)

The followers of three principle religions of the world, Judaism, Christianity and Islam, hold Abraham (peace be upon him) in great reverence. He was a native of Ur. Ur in present day is called Al-Muqayyar (or Mughair), and is about two hundred miles south east of Baghdad in Iraq.

Abraham (peace be upon him) was brought up in the house of his uncle Azar. The Bible mentions different name of Abraham's father that is Terah (genesis 11:26) Tharah (Luke 3:34) and ecclesiastical history mentions Athar as his father. The Holy Quran mentions Azar as his Ab (26:87). Ab in Arabic is equally applicable to father, uncle and grandfather. His paternal uncle ran a shop where idols were sold. Abraham (peace be upon him) observed the crafting of idols at his uncle's home. The idols were made by humans and sold to the public as their gods.
