

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

The Monthly Qiadat Newsletter of Majlis Khuddamul Ahmadiyya Edinburgh

February 2012– Rabi Al-Awaal - Rabi Al-Thani 1433 A.H.

Holy Qur'an:

And every one has a goal which dominates him; vie, then with one another in good works. Wherever you be, Allah will bring you all together. Surely, Allah has the power to do all that He wills (Ch. 2:V. 149)

Sayings of the Holy Prophet (saw):

Abu Hurairah (ra) relates that a man came and asked the Holy Prophet (saw): Which giving away in charity is more acceptable to God? He answered: That which you give away while you are in good health, seeking wealth, fearing adversity and hoping for prosperity. Do not delay spending in charity till you are in extremity to say: To So and So this, and to So and So that; for by then they already belong to So and So (Bokhari and Muslim).

Writings of the Promised Messiah (as):

When a man in grave difficulty falls down in prayer with perfect certainty, perfect hope, perfect fidelity, and perfect resolve; and when he becomes perfectly alert and advances far into the field of self-annihilation, tearing aside all veils of heedlessness, lo and behold, he finds before him the Divine threshold, and he perceives that God has no associate. His soul then prostrates itself at the Divine threshold and the power of attraction that is invested in him draws the bounties of God Almighty towards him. It is then that the Glorious God attends to the fulfilment of the desired objective, and casts the effect of the prayer on all the preliminary means, which, in turn, produce the means that are essential for the achievement of the objective. (Blessings of Prayer, 15-17.)

Selection from Friday Sermon delivered by Hadhrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad (atba), Supreme Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, April 29th, 2005

Huzur (aba) stated that we cannot find nearness to Allah by praying and we cannot reach the peak of goodness by doing some good deeds. This is an ongoing struggle and a non-stop journey on which when a believer imagines that he has reached his destination, he begins to see other goals beyond the horizon. It is incumbent on every Ahmadi Muslim to be constantly on the lookout for ways to make progress in righteousness. This includes worship, good works, discharging our duty towards our fellow beings. There is a vast array of things that must be done in all sincerity. Do not think that by doing one or two good things you have reached the goal. You will be worthy of being called a true believer only when you start to make progress in all fields of goodness as mentioned in the Holy Qur'an.

In the end Huzur (aba) prayed that Allah may enable all Ahmadis to join this race to try and excel each other in goodness. Ameen.
